<sup>3</sup> Instruments not included in the previous category, but which are referenced to shares referred to in that category and with a similar economic effect to that of the instruments in that category, whether the instruments are settled physically or in cash.

<sup>4</sup> The legal basis for FI to compile and publish these so-called major shareholding notification announcements is that this document is necessary for FI to carry out a task in the public interest (Article 6(1)(e) of the General Data Protection Regulation). Chapter 4 of Act (1991:980) sets forth that major shareholders are obligated under certain conditions to notify FI when buying or selling shares and that FI must disclose this information. Chapter 12, sections 10–11 of FFFS 2007:17 specifies the required content of the major shareholding notification.
