PART I: GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. This framework consists of the reporting requirements under Article 5g of Council Regulation (EU) No 833/2014 (Russia Economic Sanction Regulation – ‘RSR’)¹ and under reporting requirements under Article 1z of Council Regulation (EC) 756/2006 (Belarus Sanction Regulation - BSR)². As part of the obligations established in the RSR and BSR, credit institutions that are subject to these regulations shall provide information specified in this reporting framework.

Addresses of the reporting obligation

2. The framework is in accordance with the clarification on the application of RSR and BSR provided by the European Commission in responses to frequently asked questions³. The reporting obligation applies to credit institutions incorporated or constituted under the law of a Member State, including their branches in the EU or third countries, or doing business in the EU territory.

Scope of the reporting obligation

3. Credit institutions shall provide to the national competent authority of the Member State where they are located or to the Commission information regarding deposits as specified in Article 5g(1) of RSR and Article 1z of BSR.
4. In the Member States where the official currency is other than EUR, the limit set out in Article 5g(1) of RSR and Article 1z of BSR applies in the national currency using the official EUR exchange rate at the reference dates.
5. Credit institutions shall provide information on account-by-account basis for all accounts where deposits in the meaning of RSR and BSR are held for account holders whose total carrying amount of all deposits with the credit institution exceeds EUR 100,000 or EUR 200,000 (e.g. where the joint account is held by two persons within the scope of the prohibition).
6. Where the accounts are denominated in currencies other than the reporting currency, the credit institutions shall use official exchange rates at reference date to convert the account balanced into the reporting currency.
7. Information shall be provided following the same logic as the prohibition set out in Article 5b of RSR and 1u of BSR and in line with the responses and the explanations provided by the European Commission in responses to frequently asked questions regarding the application of sanctions.

Reporting reference and remittance dates

8. Credit institutions shall provide the information specified in Article 5g(1) point (a) of RSR and Article 1z point (a) of BSR no later than 27 May each calendar year.
9. Where there is no deadline, the information specified in Article 5g(1) point (b) of RSR and Article 1z point (b) of BSR shall be provided as soon as possible. This means that credit institutions should take proper action to swiftly collect the information. The deadline of 27 May envisaged in Article 5g(1) point (a) of RSR and Article 1z point (a) of BSR provides, by analogy, a reasonable timeframe for the transmission of this information as well. Where credit institutions are not able to provide this information by the set deadline for the reasons the information still being collected, they shall inform the respective competent authorities regarding the delay and its reasons and agree reasonable deadline with the competent authorities.
10. Credit institutions shall consider the following reference dates:
 - (i) balance of the deposits on 26 February of each calendar year for reporting in accordance with Article 5g(1) point (a) of RSR (Reporting basis I), which is entry into force date for the Council Regulation (EU) 2022/328 introducing the relevant reporting obligation;
 - (ii) balance of the deposits on 26 February of each calendar year for reporting in accordance with Article 5g(1) point (b) of RSR (Reporting basis II), which is entry into force date for the Council Regulation (EU) 2022/328 introducing the relevant reporting obligation;
 - (iii) balance of deposits on 17 December 2022 for the first reporting in accordance with Article 5g(1) point (aa) of RSR (Reporting basis III), which is entry into force date for the Council Regulation (EU) 2022/2474 introducing the relevant reporting obligation;
 - (iv) balance of the deposits on 10 March of each calendar year for reporting in accordance with Article 1z point (a) of BSR (Reporting basis IV), which is entry into force date for the Council Regulation (EU) 2022/398 introducing the relevant reporting obligation; and
 - (v) balance of the deposits on 10 March of each calendar year for reporting in accordance with Article 1z point (b) of BSR (Reporting basis V), which is entry into force date for the Council Regulation (EU) 2022/398 introducing the relevant reporting obligation.
